IRISH WRECKS

Irish Wrecks is a divers guide to all the ship wrecks that have occurred in Ireland. This website covers all of the old and new ships wrecks, dating back from the 1700's to the present. We also cover the illustrations of ships, dived wrecks by name and all wrecks by county.

Vasa, 1628

Vasa is a Swedish warship, believed to have been built between 1626 and 1628. The ship sank twenty minutes into its maiden voyage on August 10th, 1628 after being hit by strong winds and flooding. Sinking less than a mile into its journey.
